

Land Use Planning Framework

The Village of Lomond derives its authority to make decisions on land use planning matters from the Government of Alberta through provincial legislation and regulations, including the Municipal Government Act (MGA), the Alberta Land Stewardship Act (ALSA) and the Subdivision and Development Regulation, that delegate certain powers and authority to municipalities.

The Village of Lomond land use planning framework can be illustrated as follows:

